

The School Song in English:

Our School is a quiet and far away place,
Where we're taught one and all to run life's race.

We laugh and we sing, we weep a little too.

But never never give in or rue.

There's a grand grand school at Kunjpura,

Where our hearts beat brave and true;

Be they Thaneshwar or Kurukshetra,

Chillianwala and Panipat too.

In class or on the field we play the game.

We seek not clamour nor hanker for fame;

It's the fond desire and every boy's wish,

To be always ready to accomplish

There's grand, grand school at Kunjpura

Where our hearts beat brave and true;

Be they Thaneshwar or Kurukshetra

Chillianwala and Panipat too.
